

I strongly object to further consolidation within the media industries. As an American, I am ashamed of the low quality of our television, radio, and newspapers, a direct result of excessive consolidation and corporatization.

The airwaves are a national resource and should be managed in the interest of the people of this country, not in the interest of a handful of media conglomerates.